Got books???

FBLA is currently conducting a book drive. All books collected will be donated to local elementary schools, the Shalom Center, and/or Women's and Children's Horizons. The drive goes until Friday, December 14th. All books in good condition are accepted. Drop off your books in the library. THANK YOU!

Bradford Got Talent!

Can you flow with poetry? Can you rhyme some rap lyrics? Do you and your friends make videos singing and dancing?

If so, the Kenosha County Community is encouraging students or groups of students to participate in a poetry, rap and/or video challenge. The poetry or rap contest requires a minimum of 16 lines/ bar or more. The theme focus of the contest is:

The Healing Power of Kindness

The student or groups of students, participating should clearly convey the importance of kindness through their poetic lines or rap lyrics. If you wish to showcase yourself or group with poetry, and rapping lyrics for everyone to see on video this is your chance to be a star. All lyric content must be clean for poetry, rap, and video challenge.

For more information see your English teacher.
