

What Kindergarten Writing looks like

Start of the School Year

The picture tells the story

Mid-School Year

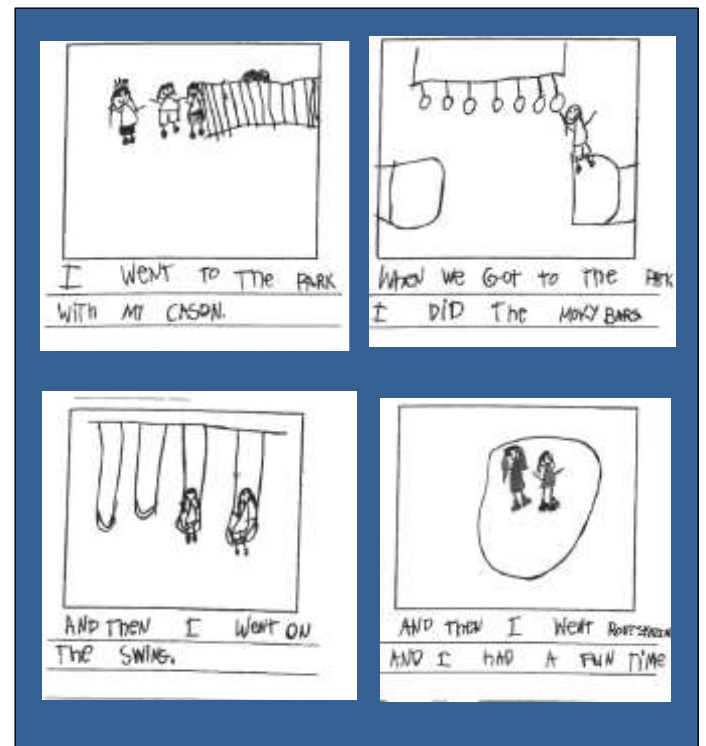

Your child labels their picture.
They write words such as “my” accurately.

They “stretch” words they don’t know.

There are spaces between their words.

End of the School Year

Your child’s story has a clear beginning, middle and end.

The story is told in sentences.