• National Women’s History Month: "'When there is oppression, the only self-respecting thing is to rise and say this shall cease today, because my right is justice. If you are stronger, you have to help the weaker boy or girl both in play and in the work." ~ Sarojini Naidu

Sarojini Naidu is famous for being one of the greatest poets of India, so much so that she is referred to as the 'Nightingale of India'. She used her poems to explore complex topics such as death, natural order, and childhood, and also to support Mahatma Gandhi and his movement. - Student: John Cargille

• Come see Matilda the Musical this weekend in the auditorium! The popular Roald Dahl book comes to life onstage! Performances are Friday and Saturday at 7:30pm, Sunday at 2:00pm. Tickets are only $5 for students and staff.

• Tomorrow Thursday, March 28th is Drop-In Conferences for parents to come to meet with teachers from 3:30pm-7:30pm. Due to conferences, there will be no clubs or after school homework help on Thursday, March 28th.

• April is National Poetry Month, and to encourage everyone to free your inner poet, the library is having a poetry contest. Just write a poem for the prompt and be entered for a chance to win a fabulous prize! Your poem can be in any form, such as haiku or limerick, and must be turned into the library by March 28th. See Ms. Liesch or Mrs. Z in the library for more details. The prompt for the contest is “The library means...”

• Attention middle school and high school students. The 2019 annual dodgeball tournament is happening soon. It will take place in April 3rd from 3:30 to 5 and on April 4th from 3:30 to 4:30. The cost per team is $12 dollars and up to 6 people per team. There is no cost for spectators. All money raised will be going to Kindred Kitties. Permission slips can be found right outside the main office. The deadline to turn them in has been extended to March 27th. If you have any questions please contact John Mauser or Juan Mata.

• “Hi Pokémon trainers! Our next meeting is April 1st.”

• The word of the week is robust, an adjective meaning, healthy and strong. The word is appropriately used in the following sentence: The robust horse was able to pull the wagon full of cinder blocks

• "All this week there will be a fundraiser for the Fisher House in Milwaukee. The crew that raises brings in the most items will receive a KUSD dress code day. Please see your crew teacher for more information. Collects will be from today to April 4th (Thursday)."
