The word of the week is extol, a verb meaning to praise: The word is appropriately used in the following sentence: Ms. Jensen extols any student who is able to be a vegan for more than a week!

"Want a safe place where you can talk about things teenagers talk about? Want to share a really cool poem you created or open up about a life in general? Well, Open Mic night is here. Stop by Room 334 (Mrs. Jakubowski’s room) on Wednesday, October 24th from 2:30 to 4:00 and have some popcorn and relax.” Open mic night. See you there.

Do you want to wear sweatpants for a good cause? On Wednesday, October 24th we will be raising money for the Harborside Foundation which gives scholarships to Harborside students for post-secondary education. All funds raised will go toward creating auction baskets for the Harborside Foundation Bowl-a-Thon and Golf Outing. Donate $5 to wear sweatpants with a Harborside shirt or $1 to wear jeans with a Harborside shirt. If you are in 9th grade, you have fieldwork on Wednesday, if you donate on Wednesday morning, you will be given a card to exchange for a sticker on Thursday as you come into school to wear your sweatpants or jeans then. Thank you all in advance for your participation!
