Contest Guidelines

1. Students must produce the decorations and decorate the door.
2. The door must be decorated by Wednesday, October 8th before 3rd hour.
3. Nothing installed may damage the classroom door, its paint or varnish.
 - ★ No nails, tacks, or staples may be put into the door.
 - ★ All adhesives used must be FULLY removable. Please test your adhesives before using it!!!
6. Door handles MUST remain visible and operational; Door decorations may not impede the usage of the door or pose a safety hazard.
7. Should include the Night in the Bayou theme and Hawk Pride! (Sink the Sabers too if you want to include our parade theme!)

If you plan to leave your door decorations in place for more than a week, please make sure your window is visible.*

How will the contest be judged?

Each classroom door will be judged according to the following criteria:

1. Is the display Creative? Neat? Colorful? Resourceful? Eye-catching?
2. Is the door completely decorated?
3. Do the decorations fit with a Hoco theme & show Hawk Pride?

Sink the Sabers & A Night in the Bayou

4. Does the display follow all of the school regulations and contest guidelines?

A team of faculty & administrators will be judging the doors Thursday, October 9th. The winning classes by floor will be announced at the Pep Assembly on Friday.

SPIRIT POINTS Details

Grades compete for the Spirit Stick all week long in various competitions:

In each of the competition below, classes earn the following points based on how they finish:

1st place = 10 points, 2nd place = 8pts, 3rd place = 6 pts, 4th place = 4 pts

- One way to get spirit points is to win the Spirit Week dress up days (have the most students in your grade dressing up for each day)
- Win the Powderpuff tournament
- Win the class competitions/spirit games at the pep assembly
- Lastly, have the best the class float for the parade on Friday.

Spirit Week

Happy Homecoming HAWKS!
