

NEA's READ ACROSS AMERICA WEEK

March 4th – March 8th

The National Education Association is building a nation of readers through its signature program, NEA's Read Across America. This year-round program focuses on motivating children to read through events, partnerships, and reading resources. In celebration of Read Across America week, we will be having our own fun in connection with books by doing the following themed activities next week.

Monday: Dr. Seuss Day (in honor of his birthday March 2nd) – Come dressed as your favorite Dr. Seuss character, book character, or wear Dr. Seuss clothing.

Tuesday: Readers are Great Leaders - Dress as a job you would like to do one day!

Wednesday: A Bad Case of Stripes - Raid your closet for stripes, stripes, and more stripes! Show off your very own bad case of stripes.

Thursday: The Napping House - Dress in your favorite comfy clothes that you like to nap or lounge around the house in. Bring a blanket/towel to lounge on while everyone at school drops everything and reads at the same time. (No Pajamas, though!)

Friday: Oh, the Places You'll Go! - Dress like you are going to your favorite vacation spot, a place you would like to visit, or a t-shirt from a vacation.
