Plenty of great teachers in Unified

I want to acknowledge the wonderful and dedicated teachers I have had the privilege of working with and observing this semester as a clinical supervisor for the Institute for Teacher Education at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside. The mentor teachers I worked with are outstanding and I think they should be recognized in some way, if only as a thank you in the Voice of the People. Citizens of Kenosha need to know how many great teachers are out there, working each day motivating and caring about their kids!

Some of the best are: Jessica Worcester, Martin Dombkowski, Peter Elliker and Katarina Jovanovic from Bullen Middle School; Todd Lojeski and Frances Chatman from EBSOLA - Creative Arts; Susanna Miller from Harborside Academy; Sarah Host and Jennifer Erb from Nash Elementary; Heidi Tobalski, Vicki Foley and Julie Kresse from Prairie Lane Elementary; Beth Casey, Jennifer Bertz and Lydia Bollendorf from Somers Elementary; Jennifer Kahle, Kathleen Klein, Noelle Voelz, Erin LaBuda and Ellen Teague from Southport Elementary; and other outstanding elementary teachers I visited: Anna Eckelberg at KTEC East; Justine Jerry at Somers Elementary; and Mrs. Boscher, Mrs. Masaka, and Mrs. Perugini at Forest Park Elementary.

And congratulations to all the staff at Bose, Grevenow, Roosevelt and Grant Elementary for being outstanding Title I schools.

Let's make every week Teacher Appreciation Week!
